

COOPERATIVE ECONOMIC INSECT SURVEY REPORT
Glenn A. Salsbury, Survey Entomologist

Report 6, Volume 58
June 18, 2010

JAPANESE BEETLE: Beetles are now flying in Southeast Kansas.

REDHEADED ASH BORER: Adults are continuing to be caught in traps.

CAROLINA SAWYER: Three more adults have emerged since the last report. These from the same log caged since last August.

BARK BEETLES: Very few beetles are now being caught.

Contributors to this report: Salsbury, Sanders